As we proceed through our third month of life according to the regulations for COVID-19, St. Paul’s continues to adjust to the everchanging environment. Our county, counties surrounding us and many parts of our state and nation are undergoing reopening efforts that include strict requirements designed to minimize the transmission of COVID-19. However, time will be the only true answer in determining how effective these requirements are. Given the nature of the population we serve, our regulators have yet to finalize a plan for our reopening and we continue to follow strict guidelines and restrictions to minimize risk of transmission within our community. Daily, we are reminded of the responsibility we have in providing a safe and healthy environment for our residents and our team members and are hopefully optimistic that the passage of time will support reopening efforts in our community. Until then, we will remain vigilant in our efforts to protect those we serve while we strategize and ponder how we will begin our reopening when the time is right.

Keeping all of this in mind, our team members invest their time and talents every day to create days that residents look forward to; days that include support and encouragement and more importantly days that are filled with joy and laughter regardless of the circumstances. All team members contribute to the care of residents as well as supportive services. Regardless of their position, during these days it’s all hands-on deck, and team members work together to meet the variety of needs and desires of residents all while creating an atmosphere of safety and security.

Life Enrichment continues to focus their time and attention coordinating video and door/window visits for residents and families. Recently, cell phones with Bluetooth speakers were added to enhance visits by making the phone hands free for residents and the sound louder and clearer. We encourage family members who would like to schedule a video or door/window visit to do so by calling one of our Life Enrichment Specialists.

Recently, many of our government officials have been in the news talking about a new initiative to test all long-term care residents and staff for COVID-19. This discussion has been followed up with various recommendations from the PA Department of Health, the CDC and CMS and we continue to receive updated recommendations from these regulatory bodies. We have been working with our state association and other communities like St. Paul’s to interpret the recommendations and determine how to best apply them to St. Paul’s. Testing is not something we take lightly as there are many contradictions within the recommendations and one size does not

We will continue to post updates and videos of Life at St. Paul’s on our website: www.stpauls1867.org/contact/covid-19-updates fit all. Some of the challenges associated with these testing recommendations include test kit availability, timeliness of test results, accuracy of test results for asymptomatic individuals, available resources to administer significant levels of ongoing testing, etc. Currently, St. Paul’s is testing residents when they are experiencing unexplained symptoms consistent with COVID-19 and when ordered by a physician. Any team members experiencing unexplained symptoms are being encouraged to contact their physician, and precautions are being taken by St. Paul’s to ensure their safety and the safety of others until such symptoms are resolved. To date, we have not seen a positive test result in the St. Paul’s community. We will continue to evaluate our testing strategy and work towards arriving at a solution that works best for our community and meets the authoritative guidance set forth by our regulators.

These past few months have been challenging to navigate through mostly because information about the virus and guidelines to mitigate risk of spreading the virus change almost daily. Please know that our priorities have always been and will always be focused on our residents and our team. We have made countless difficult decisions that impact life at St. Paul’s and will face new challenges regarding the same. Please know that we weigh each of these decisions carefully focusing on providing the safest environment possible while balancing life worth living. Through all of it we appreciate your patience, understanding and your prayers.

We do believe that God has and continues to watch over and protect St. Paul’s and blesses us abundantly every day. We do however look forward to the days when our campus will be full of life for those who live and work here and the families they love.

Like so many around the world, the whole of St. Paul’s Senior Living Community is living in the midst of an historic moment. Years from now, some will want to know how we lived and experienced the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic in 2020. The experiences of everyday people are essential to understanding the past and this moment in our lives is no different.

We have a collection of items that document the history of St. Paul’s as far back as the mid-1800s. We have thousands of photographs, albums, newsletters, and other memorabilia in our archives documenting the St. Paul’s experience. We want to add your story of how you and your family are understanding and experiencing the current “new normal.”

Why this is important?

Items in our collection let us hear the voices and see the people from our past and preserve individual and collective memories. We can appreciate the joys and disappointments, as well as achievements, failings and even life lessons or insights that have been learned. We can even understand the normalcies of everyday life – what the weather was like, how holidays were celebrated, or what someone ate for dinner.

What should we write about?

• How are you connected to St. Paul’s? (resident, family member, team member, alumnus, board member, other)
• Where are you located? (city, state, country)
• What was your reaction to the initial news about the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic? Has your reaction/view changed over time? How?
• What was your reaction to state/federal government responses, guidelines, recommendations, restrictions? Has your reaction/view changed over time? How?
• What was your reaction to St. Paul’s initial response (screening employees, restricting visitors, etc.)? Has your reaction/view changed over time? How?
• How has your daily life changed? (i.e. social distancing, wearing masks, working from home/job loss)
• What have been your biggest challenges?
• What are some positive experiences or lessons that you’ve encountered?
• What societal shifts or changes do you expect or hope to see when things get back to “normal”?
• Can you compare this experience with other times in your life that you can remember?

Email your story to: jkather@sp1867.org. We invite you to include photos, copies of newspaper clippings or other relevant media that support your experience. Let us know if we can publish your name or if you’d like your response to remain anonymous.

Is there anything we should avoid writing about?

The information that you share may be used for current publications or may be used at a later date about the historical experience at St. Paul’s. Avoid including anything that you wouldn’t want us to share or others to read. Consider keeping your responses focused on your family’s experience not others’. Future generations at St. Paul’s will thank you for sharing!
If you are a resident or you love a resident at St. Paul’s and are pleased with the care, please consider becoming a supporter of St. Paul’s charitable mission.

I’d love to donate but...my investments just took a big hit.
I’d love to donate but...I worry I’ll need the money down the road.
I’d love to donate but...I can’t afford to give much.

If any of these sentences describe you, the perfect solution may be a legacy gift.

What is a Legacy Gift?
Also known as a planned gift, a legacy gift is a charitable donation that you set up as part of your estate plan. The gift does not come to St. Paul’s until after you have passed away.

Advantages to a Legacy Gift:
1. It costs you nothing in your lifetime.
2. It may enable you to make a more impactful gift than you could otherwise.
3. It can be altered if you change your mind.
4. It reduces estate taxes in the future and may give you an income tax deduction today.
5. You’ll gain membership to St. Paul’s celebrated Legacy Society.

Why are Legacy Gifts Needed?
As a not-for-profit organization, St. Paul’s provides benevolent care for residents who cannot afford the full cost of their care. This means they never have to leave St. Paul’s even if they exhaust their financial resources. We are able to do this because of supporters who donate each year to the Good Samaritan Fund and Keeping the Promise Fund.

The cost of the benevolent and unfunded care that St. Paul’s provides each year far exceeds the annual donations that come in to support it. Legacy gifts are typically larger gifts than a person can make annually and is future support St. Paul’s can count on to help fund benevolent care.

How to Make a Legacy Gift
Here are three of the most common types of legacy gifts and how to make them:

Bequest in Will
When drafting your will, you could name St. Paul’s as a beneficiary of a specific dollar amount, a percentage, or a share of the residual. What if your will is already written? Simply add an amendment called a codicil. A bequest is exempt from federal estate tax. You can find sample language to use at www.stpauls1867.org.

Retirement Plan
You could name St. Paul’s as a beneficiary of all or a portion of your retirement account. This will reduce the estate taxes owed for this asset. In addition, it can protect a non-spouse beneficiary from a significant income tax burden, because by law they must withdraw all the funds from an inherited retirement account in 10 years.

Life Insurance
There are several ways to use life insurance to make a legacy gift.

1. Name St. Paul’s as one of the beneficiaries of an existing policy.
2. Donate an existing, paid-up policy you no longer need. You’ll be able to deduct the approximate cash surrender value on your taxes.
3. Make St. Paul’s the owner and beneficiary of an existing policy, while you continue to pay the premiums. You will be able to deduct the approximate cash value of the policy, plus future premiums on your taxes.
4. Purchase a new life insurance policy, and name St. Paul’s the owner and beneficiary. You will be able to deduct the premiums on your taxes.

For more information about these or other kinds of legacy gifts, please contact Dawn Hartman, Director of Planned & Major Giving, at 724-588-9613 ext. 1214 or dhartman@sp1867.org.

Opportunities for
Gifts of Appreciation to Staff

Many residents, clients and families often ask how they can give back and say “Thank You” to the staff who have provided excellent care to their loved ones while living at St. Paul’s. These three funds give you the opportunity to do so:

1. A donation may be made to the Staff Appreciation Fund. This fund enables St. Paul’s to recognize all staff. (i.e., to provide staff apparel, staff appreciation picnics, or gift cards for various occasions.)

2. A donation can be made to the Staff Education Fund. You can define the education opportunity or leave it to the administrator’s discretion.

3. A donation of appreciation can be made to the Annual Staff Christmas Party. This donation can be given to the administrator or director and identified for the Staff Christmas Party and will be used to offset the cost and for staff gifts the night of the party.

If you would like to make a donation to staff for anything outside of these three funds, please see your administrator or director to talk about specifics.

Employees may not accept individual gifts, cash or currency of any kind from a resident or family member. We appreciate your support of these guidelines in order for us to remain compliant with regulations and our corporate compliance policies.
As of June, the weekly Bible Study Broadcast will move from Wednesdays at 1 p.m. to Thursdays at 1 p.m. There will also be a change in theme: travel stories in the Bible. The winter/spring study of favorite hymns and their Scriptural bases will conclude at the end of May. Starting in June, we will look at Bible experiences by the water, in the mountains, and en route along the way and the opportunities/challenges posed for people of faith through them.

It would be fun to hear by letter, email, or in-person conversation favorite travel memories from residents and staff at St. Paul’s. They can be highlights or low points, inspirational moments or lessons learned along the way. Pastor Julia will make use of them in weekly lessons plans, so listen in on Thursdays on Channel 1851 to hear your travel stories and those of others!

Wednesday Evening Service Broadcast

Upon Pastor Bill’s retirement, Pastor Julia will take over the weekly Wednesday Evening Service Broadcast at 6:30 p.m. on Channel 1851. Beginning June 3, we will have services of Evening Prayer featuring life stories of famous Christians during the sermon. Looking forward to worshipping with you in this new way!

Congratulations to Jeffrey Williams on his graduation from Youngstown State University’s Dana School of Music with a Master’s Degree in Music Performance. Jeffrey served as a worship accompanist during Sunday morning services across the past year and appreciated the welcome and encouragement offered by our residents. Jeffrey has returned home to Cleveland for the summer to await next steps. He extends his thanks to the people at St. Paul’s for their kindness. We pray God’s blessings upon Jeffrey in whatever lies ahead!
A Message from Pastor Julia

It feels fortuitous to be assuming my new role as Director of Spiritual Services immediately following the Day of Pentecost. Both the Day of Pentecost and the longer season of Pentecost that follows highlight things that will help us at this juncture: the power of prayer; the guiding presence of the Holy Spirit; gifts for ministry given to believers; strength for witness and service inspired by worship and praise; and God’s promise to prosper growth into his good purposes. I trust that with “all these things working together for good,” we will be able to make a congenial transition. I’m interested to hear your thoughts and ideas as to how we can do good ministry in this place. It continues to be my pleasure and privilege to serve as your pastor.

Direct us, O Lord, in all our doings with your gracious favor, and further us with your continual help, that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in you, we may glorify your holy name through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

— Pastor Julia

Retirement Prayer for Pr. Bill
Eternal God, we give you thanks for your servant, Bill, and for his many years of service at St. Paul’s. Grant Bill and his wife, Connie, good health, new opportunities to learn and grow, and the blessing of leisure time together. By your Holy Spirit, continue to build on the good work that he has done here in your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Resident of the Month:
Margaret “Peggy” Cochran

Peggy was born in Mercer County, the daughter of Howard McWhirter and Helen Stein. She had a sister, Mary, and two brothers, Jim and Bill. She went to West Middlesex School. She received three awards when graduating from high school, which set a new record for the school. She was awarded for future homemaker of America, waitress club, and home economics.

Peggy worked as a waitress, worked at Kresky’s (which is now Kmart), and later worked as a caregiver. She married Lawrence “Larry” Cochran in 1981. They have one daughter, Brenda Sue. She has one grandchild, Jennifer, and two great grandchildren, Rex and Stella. Her favorite food is dessert.

Surprise Visit!

Ridgewood resident, Phyllis Haynes (left) got a surprise visit from her granddaughter all the way from North Carolina!

They got to visit on their cell phones through the glass door and she got to wish her grandma a Happy Mother’s Day face-to-face!
Since mid-March, Pastor Julia has been sending daily e-mails to the St. Paul's team titled “Words of Encouragement.” Below is a recent installment that she gave permission for us to share here:

“Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones” is the first line of a hymn that gives thanks for angels and their benevolent work in the lives of God’s people, but when these words came to my mind recently, it was in a different context.

I lead a monthly hymn sing in Jones Serenity Circle which is attended by residents and also by two WOW workers who join with us in our singing. I always look forward to seeing them, having great respect for all WOW colleagues for the smiles they invariably bring to the faces of those in their care. But this week, I recognized what a wonderful blessing they are in this time of restriction: they are visitors—basically the only kind of visitors allowed—visitors who give the one-on-one care all humans crave; visitors who are stand-ins for the love and support family members would show if they could; and visitors who spice up the life of entire neighborhoods as they come and go.

These “Watchers and Holy Ones” are, all the time, earthly angels who do benevolent work in the lives of God’s own, but, in the present moment, they bring fresh faces and novel society where both are much needed. I know I am not alone in being grateful for our WOW orkers at St. Paul’s and pray God’s blessings on their ongoing work.

Sincerely, Pr. Julia

Cherie Campbell, resident on Jones Serenity Circle – like the rest of us – is missing her regular hair appointments, so a few team members and a box of Revlon hair color brought her right back to her old self! And she sure looks satisfied with the outcome!

Young Pen Pal Visits with Residents via Zoom for Storytime

During these challenging times, inspiring acts of kindness from heroes of all ages are bringing moments of joy to St. Paul’s Senior Living Community. Many cards, notes and letters have been sent to the residents at St. Paul’s to lift their spirits. Our team members are sharing the sentiments to brighten their days and remind them that people are thinking of them at this time when visitation is restricted.

One particular card labeled “For Someone Special” caught the eye of an employee in the Orchards neighborhood at The Villas. On the back of the envelope, the sender wrote, “Write back soon!” Staff opened the card, which was signed by “Malia,” and they responded telling her they appreciated her kind words and that they hoped to keep in touch.

A few weeks later, Malia and her mother, Alexis Robich delivered an Easter basket full of goodies for the residents and staff on the Orchards. This time Malia’s card suggested another way she might connect with our residents: “I was thinking that over the phone I could read you a book to brighten your great day.”

Over the past month, the staff was able to connect to Malia’s mom on Facebook. They continued to correspond and decided to set up a Zoom meeting and have Malia read a book to the residents. She read one of her favorite books, Night Shift Daddy, a children’s book about the special bond between a little girl and her father. Leading up to her story time, Malia practiced reading to her dog.

We are so thankful for Malia’s new friendship and hope that we can meet her when restrictions are lifted and visitors can join us again in our community. The Robichs are from the Greenville area.

Springtime
The sun is shining bright
Springtime is here
The evening’s longer time of light
So flowers bloom at last so bright

The day’s longer light
Makes more work sometimes into night
Evening rest, to our delight
Night to sleep and dream what might

Speak before bedtime, to the almighty
Never miss that time, quality,
For He knows tomorrow
Just follow Him all day long

Glen Shollenberger (pictured at left) is a resident on the Gardens neighborhood at The Villas. During this time when many activities have been put on hold, Glen has been using his free time to reignite his love of writing. Below is one of his most recent musings that he allowed us to share. Enjoy!

Mary Patton poses with the first card they received from Malia.
