The Art of Living
2019 Impact Report
A Message from Chris

An art can be defined as a skill at doing a specific thing, typically one acquired through lots of practice. With more than 150 years of experience, St. Paul’s has the art of living in your retirement years down pretty well. I’m excited to share the 2019 Annual Impact Report with you, showcasing how you have brought color to our palette.

St. Paul’s Without Walls can improve the art of living in your own home, with a companion to enrich your life, help with housekeeping and laundry, and prepare delicious and nutritious meals; or a care partner to provide assistance with daily life and personal care.

For those recovering from surgery or an illness, The Villas offers rehabilitation to return you to your own art of living at home as quickly as possible.

When your current art of living is no longer meeting your needs, St. Paul’s can custom create you a new one. Whether it’s retirement living in a beautiful home in The Colony, where you don’t have to worry about maintenance, home repairs, lawn care or snow removal; personal care assistance at The Heritage or The Ridgewood; or skilled nursing care at The Villas, we can create a landscape that’s right for you.

St. Paul’s charitable mission is to provide meaning, richness of life, health care, and other support services, while maintaining and enhancing the dignity of human life. That is what the art of living means to us.

We would not be able to fulfill that mission without the help of the 850 donors who opened their hearts and gave in 2019. Thank you so much for your support!

You will find many examples throughout this report of how you are helping St. Paul’s create an incredible art of living on our campus and in the community.

As I write this letter reflecting on 2019, I feel I would be remiss not to mention the battle that St. Paul’s and the world is currently engaged in against the COVID-19 pandemic, which has definitely altered our way of living for the time being.

Even though these are challenging times, we have so much to be thankful for. Those we serve have been grateful and understanding for the measures put in place to help keep them safe and healthy, even though it has come with tremendous sacrifice.

We are blessed to have supportive family members who have accepted the restrictions in order to protect their loved ones. We have team members who act selflessly and compassionately every minute of every day to deliver excellent resident centered care.

Lastly, we are coming together as a community at large to tackle and achieve a common goal. All of these are tremendous blessings.

As we look toward the future, we don’t know when the world will return to a sense of normalcy. But we do know, with your help, St. Paul’s will continue to strive to fulfill our mission and to create an art of living where older adults can thrive and enjoy life in their retirement years.

In gratitude,
Chris Wright
President and CEO

The “Art of Living” means different things to different people. That’s what is truly exceptional about St. Paul’s - our team has the ability to be flexible and innovative to create a life that is meaningful for each resident. We asked a few of our residents, staff and volunteers what they love about the “Art of Living” at St. Paul’s. Here are their answers:

“I see St Paul’s as a beautiful quilt woven together through the years with threads of friendships, laughter, sorrows and compassion, patched together one stitch at a time with love, joy, peace, comfort, and kindness. Everyone who lives here and works here helps create this beautiful life. At St. Paul’s, we do ordinary things in an extraordinary way.” - Margie Hays, Volunteer and Colony Resident, with her husband Bob

“Twenty years of life at St. Paul’s has deepened our understanding of the ‘Art of Living.’ Here we found new friends, learned from them how to adapt to changes and to care for each other, and along the way, renewed the joy of living. Simply put: we are grateful we chose St. Paul’s way of life.” - Rev. Dr. Ray & Mrs. Pat Brugler, Heritage Residents at the St. Paul’s Family Picnic

“A wise person once said that there is a difference between existing and living. As a pastor who has members living in the St. Paul’s community, I see people living in a loving community, caring for one another, and remaining engaged in life’s joys. As a member of the Board of Directors and a donor to St. Paul’s, I see the vital importance of the wider community also caring for one another and sharing in life’s precious moments. The art of caring is something we can share with everyone as we live life to the fullest.” - Rev. June Boutwell, Board Member

“I believe St. Paul’s ‘Art of Living’ is to never stop being who you are. At St. Paul’s you get to have a social life, to make new friends, to try new things... all while living in a modern home with a wonderful support system and a great staff. So, I say “be who you are at St. Paul’s!” - Katie Hrdlicka, Personal Care Attendant at The Heritage

“As an employee I help support the ‘Art of Living’ by recognizing that each resident is an individual, and that each individual has developed their own way of life. I can make sure things are done to their satisfaction by accommodating each one’s way of life.” - Krista Oros, Administrative Assistant at The Ridgewood with resident Ruth Hill at the annual Car Cruise In

“I don’t really know how to express what living at The Colony means to us. The staff at the Keifer building is the most cohesive team that we have ever seen in all our years of working. We have discovered what it means to feel comfortable and secure in a totally new environment. It means that no matter what happens there is someone you can rely on and know that anything you need will be taken care of. Our biggest regret is that we did not make this move five years ago!” - Allan & Elaine Wilkins, Colony Residents and Volunteers
When we all work together, we can accomplish great things. This is true for the Paradise Troutville Chapter Auxiliary, as they have supported The Auxiliary at St. Paul’s for more than 30 years. After a time of great change at St. Paul’s with the orphanage closing and the focus shifting solely to the care of older adults, The Auxiliary at St. Paul’s was formed on May 19, 1973, and officers were elected. The mission of The Auxiliary is to serve as a great help to St. Paul’s in providing financial support through fundraising efforts to purchase items that enhance the lives of residents.

The items that they purchase support the mission of St. Paul’s to provide meaning, richness of life, health care and other support services while maintaining and enhancing the dignity of human life. Monies are raised through a variety of activities including a membership drive that takes place in April and other fundraising activities on campus like the Annual Craft Show and Bake Sale in November.

Some of the many items that have been purchased with the donated funds through The Auxiliary at St. Paul’s are transportation vehicles, furnishings, spas, shade structures, the Garden of Love at Jones Serenity Circle Courtyard and much more. Historically related to the United Church of Christ, St. Paul’s is a mission partner of the Penn West Conference, an association of 108 UCC churches in Pennsylvania. Shortly after The Auxiliary was formed in 1973, more than twenty of those churches joined as active members.

While several UCC churches today still support The Auxiliary at St. Paul’s, the Paradise Community United Church of Christ in Reynoldsdale, Pa., and its sister church Trinity United Church of Christ in Troutville, Pa., are the only ones that still have a St. Paul’s chapter auxiliary of their own. Both churches are led by Pastor Audra Krise. All money raised from the Paradise Troutville Chapter Auxiliary is donated to St. Paul’s Auxiliary in Greenville.

The Paradise Troutville Chapter Auxiliary meets four times a year and raises money from their annual membership drive, their white elephant sale, a thank you offering at the beginning of the year and a Thanksgiving offering in November. The Paradise Troutville Chapter Auxiliary is co-chaired by Barb Dixon and Joyce London. Treasurer and Secretary Loretta Shepler has served on the board for six years.

“I have been involved with St. Paul’s since I was a little girl,” she said. “My mother would come with a group of others from our church to help food items back when St. Paul’s was an orphanage. St. Paul’s is a place I always grew up with so I wanted to serve on the auxiliary board through my church to help.”

A special thank you to the Paradise Troutville Chapter Auxiliary for your hard work and support for so many years. You have spread so much joy to our residents through your efforts. We appreciate you!

Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much. - Helen Keller

What does the Bible say about “the art of living?” In 1 Timothy 6:18-19, Paul told Timothy to instruct the church in Ephesus, “Command them to do good, to be rich in good deeds, and to be generous and willing to share. In this way they will lay up treasure for themselves as a firm foundation for the coming age, so that they may take hold of the life that is truly life.”

In this verse, “the art of living” involves helping others and being generous. We are so grateful to the many churches listed below that selflessly give to help our residents enjoy a “life that is truly life” at St. Paul’s regardless of their age, abilities or finances.
Way to Give

Outright Gifts
You can make an outright gift of cash or a check made payable to St. Paul’s.

Credit Card Donations
If you would like to donate using a credit card, visit our website at www.stpauls1867.org. Click on the “Donate” button in the top right corner.

Text to Donate
Give on the go by using your mobile device to text to donate. Simply text the word SPGIVE to 44-321. Follow the simple steps to complete your gift.

GUIDE TO PLANNED GIVING
A charitable donation made through an estate plan is called a planned gift. These gifts can enable you to make a larger gift than you could from income alone. They cost you nothing during your lifetime, and in some cases even generate income. Here are the common types of planned gifts:

BEQUESTS
Donate a set dollar amount or percentage of your estate to St. Paul’s in your will. Check out pg. 13 for a sample of the language to use.

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY
With a tax-deductible gift of $10,000 or more, fund an annuity that will guarantee lifetime income for you and then will go to St. Paul’s after your passing.

CHARITABLE REMAINDER UNITRUST
With a tax-deductible gift of $50,000 or more, create a trust that will pay you a fixed annual percentage of your remaining principal. After your passing, the remaining principal would become a gift to St. Paul’s.

LIFE INSURANCE
Gift a policy you no longer need to St. Paul’s and claim a charitable tax deduction. Another option is to assign St. Paul’s as a beneficiary of the policy, which will reduce your taxable estate.

RETIREMENT PLAN
A retirement plan is the most highly-taxed asset to pass along to your heirs. Instead name St. Paul’s as the beneficiary of your retirement account, and choose another asset for your heirs.

For more information about planned giving, please contact Dawn Hartman at 724-588-9613 ext. 1214 or dhartman@sp1867.org.

GIFTS OF SECURITIES
Gifts of appreciated securities can be transferred to St. Paul’s, giving you an immediate charitable deduction and reduces capital gains tax.

IRA QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTION
Once you reach the age of 72, you must take out a required minimum distribution from your IRA each year. If you don’t need it and don’t want it to increase your taxable income, you could choose to direct it to St. Paul’s.

IF YOU OR A LOVED ONE HAVE HAD A BETTER LIFE BECAUSE OF THE “ART OF LIVING” AT ST. PAUL’S, PLEASE CONSIDER GIVING BACK SO SOMEONE ELSE IN NEED CAN EXPERIENCE THE SAME IN THE FUTURE. HERE ARE A FEW OF THE WAYS YOU CAN GIVE:

RECURRING MONTHLY GIFTS
You can set up your bank or brokerage account to automatically send a gift each month.

Mary Ellen Bayuk moved to The Colony on January 1, 2014, one day after retiring from Penn State Behrend after a 45 year career in higher education.

“It is by far the best decision I ever made,” said Mary Ellen. “I absolutely love it here!” Mary Ellen grew up in Greenville and still had a large number of family members living in the area, including her elderly mother.

“Even though I didn’t know anyone when I moved in, everyone was so friendly and welcoming that it didn’t take long for me to feel comfortable,” she said.

She soon got involved in campus activities and joined The Auxiliary at St. Paul’s. Over the last 50 years, the volunteer auxiliary has played an integral part in creating the “art of living” at St. Paul’s by raising funds to purchase items that enhance the lives of the residents.

The Auxiliary had just finished raising funds for a second transportation van in early 2019 when the need was identified for another vehicle - a new 14 passenger bus with a wheelchair lift.

St. Paul’s current bus was aging and was being shared by all of the neighborhoods on campus for weekly shopping, trips and other special activities.

“As a resident, I was well aware of the need for a new bus,” said Mary Ellen, who is now serving as the President of The Auxiliary. “I am an active senior, and I try to participate in as many of the outings that The Colony offers.”

With the increasing need for transportation for the residents on campus, coupled with growing mechanical issues, Mary Ellen suggested the Auxiliary begin raising funds for a new bus.

“With the Auxiliary took this project on, I figured it would take four years to raise the $77,000 needed for the bus,” she said.

Instead the bus was paid for before the end of 2019!

As an original champion for the project, Mary Ellen herself finished the campaign off on December 27 with a personal gift.

“I have had the opportunity to do things while living at St. Paul’s that I probably would not have done had I lived elsewhere,” said Mary Ellen. “Our Life Enrichment Specialist Mariah Corson offers such a variety of activities - I’ve gone zip lining as a resident here! Even though I am originally from Greenville I have gone to places in the area that I didn’t even know existed. These are the kinds of things that enrich the lives of those in The Colony.”

That’s why when the need arose for a new bus, Mary Ellen was on board.

“The bus has been ordered from Don Brown Bus Sales in Johnstown, NY. Construction will begin in early 2020 on the Ford Starcraft All Star bus with a wheelchair lift that can hold 14 passengers and has space for 4 wheelchairs to be secured. Thank you so much to The Auxiliary at St. Paul’s and all of the generous donors who made the purchase of this new vehicle possible and more importantly all the life-enriching experiences it will bring for our residents.

WHY I VOLUNTEER...

“Can’t say enough about why I volunteer! People need people. It doesn’t cost anything to share love, compassion, and caring! I receive more than I give by volunteering! I enjoy meeting people and spending time in the St. Paul’s community!”

- Reba Gicic, Volunteer

The Legacy Society members are our artists of the future. They have made a planned gift in their estate plan or have created a named fund. Some day their legacy will paint a beautiful and fulfilling life for the residents at St. Paul’s.

How to Become a Member

There is no minimum gift required to become a member of the Legacy Society. Simply let the Charitable Giving Office know that you’ve included St. Paul’s in your estate plan.

Here are some ways to make a planned gift:

- Bequest through your will or trust
- Name St. Paul’s as the beneficiary of your life insurance or retirement plan
- Set up a Charitable Gift Annuity through St. Paul’s
- Talk to your financial planner about a Charitable Remainder Trust
- Create a donor advised fund through a charitable foundation, such as the Community Foundation of Western PA and Eastern OH

For more information about making a planned gift, please contact Director of Planned & Major Giving Dawn Hartman at 724-588-9613 ext. 1214 or dhartman@sp1867.org.

Laugh, Love and Give

You only had to spend a few minutes with Maggie Headland to learn she had a sharp, fun-loving sense of humor. Her green eyes sparkled with wit and intelligence. In no time, she’d have you laughing at her quick quips and Maggie-isms - the name to describe her famous one-liners.

She asked you to guess her age and then she’d respond with a twinkle in her eye, “I am older than dirt!” At her last birthday, she proudly sported a bright yellow ribbon that said as much.

She also had a line for when she had her mind made up. There was no point in trying to convince her otherwise. “My husband always said I was stubborn,” she would say with a lift of her chin and an impish grin. “But I’m not stubborn. I’m determined. There’s a difference!”

That determination brought her to a momentous celebration on October 15, 2018 - her 100th birthday which she celebrated in style surrounded by her many friends at The Colony. One hundred years is a long time of coming and going, living and loving. Maggie started her journey from Turtle Creek, Pa., where she had a comfortable childhood with three older brothers and her parents.

Maggie’s father Mitchell Rehm worked at Westinghouse Electric Corporation, and her mother Mary Tittle Rehm was a stay-at-home mom. Maggie counted her as one of her greatest role models in life.

“I had three older brothers, and my mother was a true mother,” said Maggie. “She was always there for all of us. Nothing was too much for her. I grew up knowing that’s how to be.”

Maggie always loved the water and was a talented swimmer, which eventually led her to Slippery Rock University, where she competed on the swim team and earned a degree in Health and Physical Education. It’s also where she met and fell in love with Budd Headland.

She saw Budd for the first time in the A & P in Slippery Rock. “I looked into his gorgeous blue eyes and I thought to myself, ’Oh brother – you’re a gooner!’ It was love at first sight. They married on August 30, 1941, while Budd was serving in the U.S. Army Medical Corps. After the war, Budd began a 30-year career as an industrial engineer at Westinghouse in Pittsburgh. They built a home in Churchill Borough, a stone’s throw from Turtle Creek. Maggie taught Physical Education at Wilkins Junior High School for 25 years before retiring.

Maggie’s parents eventually moved in with them. By that time, Mary had lost her eyesight completely. Budd adored his in-laws and helped care for them. Though she said Budd never had children of their own, Maggie still modeled her mother’s shining example with her giving heart, determination and helping others in need.

After the Headlands moved to The Colony at St. Paul’s in 1986, they found many new friends to help.

They enjoyed socializing, making friends and soon began volunteering at St. Paul’s.

The art of living for Maggie was always wrapped up in music. She began taking piano lessons when she was six years old and later taught herself to play the organ. She was the organist at Beulah Presbyterian Church in Pittsburgh for almost 20 years, and she filled in at several other churches in the Pittsburgh and Greensville areas over the years. She estimated she played in 250 weddings during her lifetime.

Maggie was quick to share her musical talents at St. Paul’s, playing the piano and/or organ for campus church services and other events.

One of her final public performances was at St. Paul’s Legacy Society Dinner in 2018 at the age of 99. She perched on top of two chairs stacked together to give an added boost to her petite height and played beautifully without a single sheet of music in front of her.

Maggie was also a member of St. Paul’s Auxiliary and a volunteer escort, accompanying other residents to the doctor’s office or hospital so they didn’t have to go alone. She was a long-time volunteer in the gift shop and later the bistro.

Budd was also a volunteer, serving on St. Paul’s Board of Directors for 15 years and on the Development Committee, which provided oversight to St. Paul’s Charitable Giving Department.

Not only did Budd help raise funds for St. Paul’s through his work on the committee, he and Maggie were also very generous themselves. Maggie used to say of Budd, “I think my husband was a born giver.”

You will see the Headland name on several locations across campus in honor of their giving. Headland Friendship Commons, the social center of The Villas, and the Headland Rotunda, connecting The Villas to The Heritage, were named in their honor because of their support of the Vision for the Future campaign, which raised funds to construct The Villas.

The Headlands were also leading donors for the Keeping the Promise campaign in 2011, which created a long-term fund to support St. Paul’s benevolent care program for residents who cannot afford the full cost of their care.

After Budd passed away in 2009, Maggie carried on their legacy of giving, not only at St. Paul’s, but at their alma mater Slippery Rock University, where they had established a scholarship for Woodland Hill students two decades before, the Masonic Homes and Shriner’s Hospital.

“I admired Maggie’s zest for life and her unselfish willingness to help others in various facets of life,” said Diane O’Brien Webster, who was the Vice President of Charitable Giving at St. Paul’s from 2011-2018. “Maggie and Budd will always be remembered for their kindness and generosity throughout their entire lives.”

As Diane recalls, Maggie was the de facto historian of The Colony with over 30 years of move-ins, transitions, construction and stories that she could summon to share. If you had a question about anything that had happened at St. Paul’s in the last couple decades, you just had to ask Maggie.

When she passed away in July 2019, that loss was felt deeply all across campus. It was like the end of an era at St. Paul’s. However the Headlands’ caring hearts and memory will live on for many years to come at St. Paul’s, not only from their past generous gifts, but from a sizeable legacy gift from their estate.

“It gives us a warm feeling to know that we have a part in carrying on the mission of St. Paul’s and helping to support the continuum of care that is provided to all of our friends in the St. Paul’s family,” Maggie said when they set up their legacy gift.

If it could be said that Maggie’s life had a motto, it would have been “Laugh, Love and Give.”

WHEREVER a beautiful soul has been, there is a trail of beautiful memories.

If you’d like to make a tribute gift that will help beautify the campus and provide opportunity for residents to enjoy the outdoors, consider sponsoring a bench, tree or flowering bush in the name of a loved one. A beautiful plaque will be placed at the site with your choice of inscription.

You can have a beautiful, composite bench placed on campus with a $600 donation. If you prefer to add beauty to the outdoor scenery, a tree of your choice can be planted for a $250 donation, or your choice of bush for $125.

For more information, please contact Dawn Hartman or Teresa Findley in the Charitable Giving Office at 724-588-7610.
In 2017 she suffered a slight stroke and moved into The Villas. She continued to enjoy the activities in The Villas and liked to sit by the nurse’s station so she could see what was going on.

Mom was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and she moved to Greenville in 1971 when our dad took a job at Mercer Alloys. They loved their new home and living in a small town.

After her girls were grown, she worked at The Villas. She continued to enjoy the activities in The Villas and liked to sit by the nurse’s station so she could see what was going on.

Mom and Dad raised four daughters, Gail, Carol, Alice and Barb. Mom was a Brownie and Girl Scout leader when we were growing up. She was a seamstress and taught us to sew and made Barbie doll clothes for her five granddaughters. She loved to play Yahtzee and Rummy with her grandchildren.

After her girls were grown, she worked as a clerk for Cooper and Reiber on Hadley Road. She enjoyed walking two miles every day on the roads around her home.

We chose St. Paul’s because we wanted our mom to stay in Greenville where she lived more than 40 years, and it was centrally located to the roads around her home.

We visited her weekly and became familiar with all the aides, nurses and other staff members. We knew all of them by name, and they were always friendly and caring. St. Paul’s has such a wonderful team who respect their residents and take very good care of them.”

This tribute story was written by June’s four daughters, Gail Negard, Carol Mangino, Alice Grasso and Barb Lekon. Thank you for sharing your story and for your continued support of St. Paul’s.

"Our mom, June Lekon, moved into The Heritage at St. Paul’s in July 2015 after her husband, Alex, passed away. She adjusted very well to life in assisted living and enjoyed going to Bible Study and all the entertainment The Heritage offered.

My sisters and I were very impressed with the wonderful care our mother received at St. Paul’s. She became very social and enjoyed seeing people she had met throughout her life in Greenville who were also living there. The staff were so caring and kind. She enjoyed going to the fitness center and exercising with Ron. She would always tell us that ‘everyone is very nice here.’ The pet visits and Romeo, the cockatiel in the Gardens neighborhood, were some of her favorite things as well.

Heritage resident Kathy Martorelli with Personal Care Attendant Sherrie Rader during the annual Christmas Tea.
The “art of living” at St. Paul’s is made possible by the countless caring hearts, who are filling the pages of this annual report. It is only through them and our dedicated, talented team that we are able to do what we do every day. Will you become a caring heart for St. Paul’s?

- Volunteer - St. Paul’s offers a wide variety of volunteer opportunities. Visit www.stpauls1867.org/join-our-team to learn more.

- Donate - Every gift helps to ensure that St. Paul’s can continue to provide exceptional care for you and your family long into the future.

- Share - If you’ve had a wonderful experience at St. Paul’s, please tell others. And let us know too! Write a review on St. Paul’s Facebook page, or click the “Staff Appreciation” button on our website and submit a Caring Heart. And let us know too!
